

Call for Training Scheme Applications 2019

The Namibia University of Science and Technology (NUST) through the Centre for Enterprise Development (CED) invites suitable applicants for admission to the following training programme:

Gemology, Jewelry Design and Entrepreneurship Training Programme

Training Venue: Keetmanshoop, Namibia

Duration: One (1) Year.

This training opportunity is fully funded by the Social Security Commission through its Development Fund and aims of the training scheme is to empower unemployed Namibians with necessary skills to either start their own businesses or seek employment in the gemstone sector.

Admission Requirements

- Minimum 20 points in Grade 10 with an E symbol in English

Who should Apply?

- Unemployed Namibians
- People from socio economically disadvantaged backgrounds
- People with disabilities, and those from marginalised communities are encouraged to apply and will be given first preference provided they meet all other admission requirements.

Application forms can be obtained from:

- The Centre for Enterprise Development located at NUST Main Campus, Windhoek,
- NUST Regional COLL Centres,
- Social Security Commission's Offices Countrywide,
- On request by email from sme@nust.na

Required Documents (to be submitted together with application forms)

- Curriculum Vitae - no longer then one page
- Certified copy of ID/Passport
- Certified copy of the latest academic latest results
- Police declaration of status of being unemployed and current residency (region)

Closing Date: Thursday, 31 January 2019

The Centre for Enterprise Development is registered with the Namibia Training Authority (NTA) as a training Provider.

Kindly take note that no accommodation and monthly living allowances will be provided to trainees or those who are not from Keetmanshoop.

No late applications will be accepted.

Enquiries

Ms Helena Ilovu

T: +264 61 207 2296

E: hilovu@nust.na or

sme@nust.na

